

- Play all notes to their full written duration
- Flat dynamics. Every note should be even from attack through the end of the note
- No vibrato
- Full and resonant sound for every note
- Mechanical rhythm, especially in the last movement
- Tuning to C is critical
- C isn't always the root of every chord, but it's almost always present and should be consistent across time